The origins of marine insurance trace back centuries, with the first formal policies emerging in medieval European ports. Over time, maritime insurance evolved into a sophisticated industry governed by international conventions, national laws, and industry standards—most notably, the Institute Clauses and the International Group of P&I Clubs.

Legal frameworks such as the UK Marine Insurance Act 1906 and the Hamburg Rules provide the foundation for marine insurance contracts. These laws regulate the formation, interpretation, and enforcement of insurance policies, ensuring consistency and fairness. Within this legal environment, MG U policies are structured to align with international standards, while also accommodating jurisdiction-specific nuances.
